Matthew 6:5-15 | Luke 11:1-13 | Psalms of prayer

10 PAGES | PRINT-SAFE | VECTOR TEXT | ORIGINAL WRITING

Prayer is relationship, truth, surrender, and return.

A free set of gentle, age-aware prayer pages for praise, thanks, help, truth-telling, safe-adult support, and hope.

01 READ

Open the complete passage and its neighbors.

02 NAME

Tell God the actual truth without performance.

03 PRAY

Use the prompt as a doorway, never a magic formula.

04 CARRY

Choose care, counsel, boundary, repair, rest, work, or waiting as appropriate.

The Word governs the room.

1 Samuel 3:1-10

Samuel learns to answer God with the guidance of a trusted adult.

Psalms 56:3-4

Fear can be named and carried toward trust.

Matthew 19:13-15

Jesus receives children rather than treating them as interruptions.

Luke 11:1-13

Jesus teaches prayer through relationship, dependence, and the Father's goodness.

Ephesians 6:1-4

Children and adults both receive responsibilities inside the household.

Use every reference as a doorway into a full chapter. Prompts and commentary are original teaching, not additional Scripture.

God, you are good

READ

Read 1 Samuel 3:1-10 in full. What does the passage reveal about God, the person praying, and the request?

NAME

What is the honest burden, desire, fear, gratitude, sin, person, or decision connected to god, you are good?

DISCERN

What promise may be trusted here, and what outcome must not be guaranteed or manipulated?

PRAY

Write a prayer shaped by the passage rather than by performance. Leave room for confession, surrender, and silence.

CARRY

What practical step belongs beside this prayer: care, counsel, medical attention, safety, apology, boundary, service, rest, work, or waiting?

Thank you for today

CARRY

What practical step belongs beside this prayer: care, counsel, medical attention, safety, apology, boundary, service, rest, work, or waiting?

The prayer ends. The formation continues.

Do not measure this time only by emotion or immediate resolution. Return to Scripture, remember what was named, receive care, and practice the clearest faithful next step available.

A FINAL FOUR-PART PRAYER

Father, I praise thee for...

I confess and release...

I ask thee for...

I surrender the outcome and will now...
