

Judgment Is Not a Metaphor for Inconvenience

04 _____ _____	05 _____ _____	06 _____ _____
01 _____ _____	02 _____ _____	03 _____ _____

A visual study and teaching resource

Pastors, teachers, adult classes, and mature Bible-study groups

SEE IT · STUDY IT · TEACH IT · PREACH IT · PASS IT DOWN

SCRIPTURE PATHWAYS

Matthew 10:28 · Matthew 25:31-46 · Revelation 20:11-15

Judgment Is Not a Metaphor for Inconvenience

01 SEE THE STRUCTURE

Identify the people, places, sequence, relationships, and turning points that shape this subject.

02 RETURN TO THE TEXT

Read Matthew 10:28, Matthew 25:31-46, Revelation 20:11-15. Mark what the passage says before moving into explanation or application.

03 STUDY QUESTIONS

What is happening? Who is speaking or acting? What changes? What is repeated? What does the surrounding passage clarify?

04 TEACHING MOVE

State one truth plainly, show its location in the text, illustrate the relationship visually, and invite a specific response.

05 SERMON TOOLKIT BRIDGE

Carry the governing passage, central claim, audience need, and application into The Sermon Toolkit for structured development.

NOTES / NEXT TEACHING ACTION
